

LICENSE : Poly / Mono Ringtones

IMPORTANT NOTE: Poly / Mono Ringtones are reproductions of known music titles. Therefore 3rd party rights have to be satisfied when selling those, commonly it's simply paying a ~10% fee to your local collecting society. Anyway – those payments are of course not part of this offer, it's up to you to care for proper business!

EXCEPTION: Titles marked with "Free Of Rights" can be sold without any further payments to anyone!

You are buying a general mobile distribution license for the content, without any restrictions in time and territory. You are not buying the actual copyright itself- yourbox stays the owner and rightsholder of the content. Included in the license is also the right to use the content in any form of presentation which has the purpose to advertise or present the mobile content.

The distribution right granted allows:

- Selling or donating to the end customer directly
- Selling or donating to the end customer via a mobile operator
- Selling or donating to the end customer via a 3rd party platform, if you are sole and exclusive content provider to this platform
- Sub-Licensing to other companies on basis of revenue-share or periodic payments (e.g. monthly, quarterly fees).

You are NOT allowed to:

- Offer the content for a one time fee (Buy Out, Right Out Purchase)
- Use the content for other purposes than selling / donating as mobile content
- Modify the content in other forms than adopting it for needs of end customers device
- Use the content as basis for creating new content
- Make the content available for simple download on WEB / File Sharing Networks

Delivery of the content must be done in a way which prevents stealing or misuse. This automatically forbids E-Mail, Mass Media like CD-Rom, Storage Cards etc. and simple Web Download as distribution method.

If you can't meet this requirements, you may contact us for special conditions!
